Recognizing Educational Testing Service

Whereas, Anchor House has served abused, runaway, homeless, and at-risk youth of Mercer County for 40 years, and has successfully reduced harm to our children, providing an invaluable service that makes our community a better place to live; and

Whereas, Anchor House celebrates its 40th Anniversary on Saturday, October 20, 2018 and honors the achievements of outstanding organizations and individuals in the Mercer County community; and

Whereas, among this year's honorees is Educational Testing Service, known as a launching pad for growth and advancement with its mission of helping to advance quality and equity in education by providing fair and valid assessment, research, and related services, and which is a longtime supporter of Anchor House Ride for Runaways; and

Whereas, Educational Testing Service is committed to giving and volunteerism through its Center for Advocacy and Philanthropy, having donated more than $160,000 in financial support to Anchor House, significantly enhancing the agency's capacity to provide a safe haven for abused, runaway, homeless, and at-risk youth and their families; and

Whereas, Educational Testing Service has been recognized by Anchor House with the Corporate Angel Award, given to businesses or organizations that substantially support its crucial mission,

Now, Therefore, I, Brian M. Hughes, Mercer County Executive, do hereby congratulate Educational Testing Service on receiving the Anchor House Corporate Angel Award, and thank them for contributing to the betterment of our county and community.
