By The County Executive

Recognizing Johnson & Johnson

Whereas, Anchor House has served abused, runaway, homeless, and at-risk youth of Mercer County for 40 years, and has successfully reduced harm to our children, providing an invaluable service that makes our community a better place to live; and

Whereas, Anchor House celebrates its 40th Anniversary on Saturday, October 20, 2018 and honors the achievements of outstanding organizations and individuals in the Mercer County community; and

Whereas, among this year's honorees is Johnson & Johnson, the world's largest healthcare company with more than 130 years of experience and more than 130,000 employees worldwide working to blend heart, science and ingenuity to profoundly change the trajectory of health for humanity; and

Whereas, Johnson & Johnson has held a long and distinguished partnership with Anchor House through its support of Angels Wings, Santa's Helpers, and the Ride for Runaways, and follows its credo of putting the needs and well-being of the people it serves first; and

Whereas, Johnson & Johnson has been recognized by Anchor House with the Corporate Angel Award, given to businesses or organizations that substantially support its crucial mission,

Now, Therefore, I, Brian M. Hughes, Mercer County Executive, do hereby congratulate Johnson & Johnson on receiving the Anchor House Corporate Angel Award, and thank them for contributing to the betterment of our county and community.
