Recognizing Lisa D. Wojtczuk Gervasi

Whereas, Mercer County partners with the Cherish the Children Foundation to recognize and honor volunteers who contribute outstanding service to the children of Mercer County; and

Whereas, the Cherish the Children Foundation hosts its 33rd Annual Cherish the Children Awards Banquet on April 17th, 2019 to honor individuals and organizations in Mercer County that work to have a positive impact on the lives of children; and

Whereas, the Cherish the Children Foundation presents the Cherish the Children Professional Award to a paid professional who exemplifies a commitment to enhancing the quality of life of Mercer County children and serves as an inspiration to colleagues; and

Whereas, the 2019 Professional Award is presented to Lisa D. Wojtczuk Gervasi, the executive director and owner of Family Transition Support Services (FTSS), where she manages operations of a company that provides unique services to approximately 1,200 children and families throughout New Jersey, focusing on the principle that all youth and their families have the ability to live socially productive lives regardless of social, physical, cultural, financial, or emotional barriers if given the appropriate support and services; and

Whereas, Lisa D. Wojtczuk Gervasi led FTSS to adapt to meet the challenges faced by high-risk, special populations and at-risk youth and their families as the needs of the community change,

Now, Therefore, I, Brian M. Hughes, Mercer County Executive, do hereby congratulate Lisa D. Wojtczuk Gervasi on her receipt of the Cherish the Children Professional Award, and thank her heartily for her example to the people of Mercer County.
