Whereas, the 2019 Youth Recognition Award is presented to Lauren Multari, an eighth-grade student at Reynolds Middle School in Hamilton, New Jersey, whose charitable acts began in kindergarten when she and her twin sister, Mackenzie, asked their friends to bring pairs of new pajamas, rather than gifts, to their birthday party to be donated to underserved children; and

Whereas, Lauren Multari and her sister, Mackenzie, as fourth-graders formed their own official nonprofit called Lala & Mimi's Pajama Project, which has provided more than 8,000 pairs of new pajamas to those in need, and have focused on helping children in Mercer County by partnering with other organizations and schools,

Now, Therefore, I, Brian M. Hughes, Mercer County Executive, do hereby congratulate Lauren Multari on her receipt of the Cherish the Children Youth Recognition Award, and thank her heartily for her example to the people of Mercer County.
