

Proclamation

By The County Executive

Recognizing Jean Pascale

Whereas, Jean Pascale celebrates her 100th birthday on April 18, 2019; and

Whereas, Jean Pascale was born and raised in Raritan, New Jersey, and has resided at Bear Creek Assisted Living in West Windsor for the past five years; and

Whereas, Jean Pascale graduated from Somerville High School in 1936 with one of her proudest memories being nominated as top student in her graduating class; and

Whereas, Jean Pascale was a public servant who worked as a secretary; and

Whereas, Jean Pascale has always been sustained by her faith, and began studying the Bible at the age of 95 and continues to participate in a weekly Bible study group as well as current event lectures; and

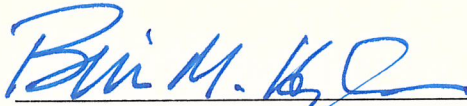

Whereas, Jean Pascale is known for her cheerful demeanor and warm smile; and

Whereas, Jean Pascale was a devoted wife; a loving mother of three; and doting grandmother to nine grandchildren and five great-grandchildren; and

Whereas, Jean Pascale has enriched the lives of innumerable people in her 100 years here with her message of kindness and peace to all,

Now, Therefore, I, Brian M. Hughes, Mercer County Executive, do hereby wish Jean Pascale a very happy 100th birthday on April 18, 2019 and thank her heartily for her example all citizens.
