

Proclamation

By The County Executive

Recognizing Leticia Acevedo

Whereas, A Better Way Inc. recognizes this year's recipients of the 2019 Trenton Changemaker Awards on June 28th, 2019 at Georgine's Banquet Hall in Bristol, Pennsylvania; and

Whereas, Trenton Changemaker Awards provide a stage to honor exemplary citizens for their dedication to serving the Greater Trenton community; and

Whereas, Leticia Acevedo, a Hispanic artist from Trenton, New Jersey, who contributes to cultural diversity by sharing pride, joy, and the liveliness of Puerto Rico, and how it transcends into the American culture with the color and richness of its beauty, is being honored with the Trenton Changemaker Arts Award; and

Whereas, Leticia Acevedo, who has developed a small business, "Designs by Letty," which depicts her artistic struggle, seeks to inspire and instill a sense of respect and pride for self as well as assist in the development and the empowerment of minorities, specifically women, through her art; and

Whereas, Leticia Acevedo has worked with community organizations on various projects and events including the African Pride Festival and the Ellarslie Museum in Trenton, and teaches art teacher at the Boys and Girls Club of Trenton, among many other organizations, promoting cultural awareness and a sense of pride through artistic expression,

Now, Therefore, I, Brian M. Hughes, Mercer County Executive, do hereby congratulate Leticia Acevedo on being recognized by A Better Way Inc. with the 2019 Trenton Changemaker Arts Award and thank her for her many contributions to the residents of Trenton and Mercer County.

Brian M. Hughes
County Executive